THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.14252 of 2007

ORAL ORDER:

It appears, petitioner-management was directed to pay certain amounts. It is the case of the petitioner that the assessment was made on ad hoc basis and not on actual and in fact the petitioner establishment has been paying the contributions regularly on actual basis. Therefore, filed application I.A.No.490 of 2002 in E.I. Case No.97 of 2002 before the first respondent. Initially stay was granted on condition of depositing Rs.20,000/-. According to the petitioner, it has deposited the said amount and the same is lying to the credit of E.S.I. Case No.97 of 2002. While that being so, unfortunately, the said application was dismissed for default on 8.3.2006 and immediately I.A.No.113 of 2006 was filed seeking restoration of the said application, but the same was not taken up for consideration till date. Now the matter is posted to 7.9.2007. In the meanwhile, the respondent is trying to recover the amounts in the guise of dismissal of the application.

In view of the same, without expressing any opinion on merits, first respondent is directed to dispose of I.A.No.113 of 2006 in E.S.I. Case No.97 of 2002 within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Till such time, no coercive steps shall be taken against the petitioner.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
